Integrity Performance

Do you and your horse do timed speed events, hunters, jumpers, or cattle work? How about racing, cutting, eventing, or polo? If so, your horse is an athlete and needs to eat like one.

Working horses can require up to double the energy of idle horses. This goes beyond eating more calories – tossing a few more pounds of hay during meals isn't going to cut it.

Optimal performance is fueled by a precise balance of proteins, fats, starches, sugars, and fatty acids.

Integrity Performance is packed with healthy ingredients like rice bran, canola oil, and whole ground flaxseed and NO corn or barley. Horses love the taste and it keeps them performing at their best.
