

CATFISH FEED

Proper nutrition and properly sized foods are essential for the health and growth of catfish. Aquaxcel and Star Milling's Catfish diets are balanced, complete feeds, specifically matching the size and nutritional needs of each growth phase.

CATFISH

Catfish are the most widely farmed aquaculture species in the U.S. They are scaleless, quick growing, and have a good food conversion ratio. Catfish are a very hardy fish and are popular in aquaponic systems.

- Preferred water temperatures for optimum growth 65°F - 80°F (18°C - 26°C)
- When feeding during the grow out phase:
 - Water temperature > 65 degrees, feed a floating feed
 - Water temperature < 60 degrees, feed a sinking feed
- Ideal water pH level is 7.0

All fish have 5 basic needs: clean water, oxygen, food, light, and room to swim.
